

U.S. Postage Stamp Guide

Sample Image	Inscription	Value 22 Jan 2023	Purpose (Simplified)
	Postcard	48 ¢	postcard up to 6" x 4.25" x 0.016"
	Forever	63 ¢	envelope up to 11.25 x 6.125" x 0.25" if flexible and a regulation rectangle Up to 1 ounce. Extra postage required per additional ounce. Up to 3.5 ounces, beyond which it classifies as "large envelope."
	Non-Machineable	$ 1.03	envelope up to 11.25 x 6.125" x 0.25" if rigid/stiff or if squarish or tall or if has a clasp or other odd feature Up to 1 ounce. Extra postage required per additional ounce. Up to 3.5 ounces, beyond which it classifies as "large envelope."
no such stamp	Large Envelope	$ 1.26	envelope up to 15" x 12" x 0.75" Up to 1 ounce. Extra postage required per additional ounce. Up to 13 ounces, beyond which it classifies as "package" rates.
	Additional Ounce	24 ¢	extra postage per additional ounce of a domestic envelope
	Two Ounce	87 ¢	This stamp simply combines one "Forever" and one "Additional Ounce"
	Three Ounce	$ 1.11	This stamp simply combines one "Forever" and two "Additional Ounce"
	Global	$ 1.45	envelopes to a foreign address, up to one ounce

The use of stamps is not restricted to their inscription. Stamps are valid on other mail at these values. Other stamp denominations are available, such as: 1¢, 2¢, 3¢, 4¢, 5¢, 10¢, 40¢, $1, $2, $5, $10, etc.

Not responsible for errors. Data from USPS.com and pe.USPS.com in Nov 2022. Stamp designs belong to United States Postal Service.